Olten, March 9, 2023

John de Joode
President of ELEA

Philippe Kleiber
Registrar

The candidate who successfully passed the ELE examination at an associated national lighting society or an accredited partner within the European Lighting Expert Association (ELEA), according to the examination regulations of ELEA, has been granted the rights to be listed in the ELE register and to hold the international title European Lighting Expert (ELE).

Besides these rights, there are also obligations. Every European Lighting Expert has to comply with the Code of Conduct for European Lighting Experts. Registration is effective as of the date of exam and is valid for five years.

The ELE register is managed by the Swiss Lighting Association (SLG) on behalf of the ELEA.
